Postmaster-General to represent the postal service and the department at the laying of the corner-stone of the postal service and the department at the laying of the corner-stone of the Federal building at Suffolk on November 23. The function will be made a gala occasion by the citizens of the thriving Virginia city. Postmaster Quimby, of Suffolk, has been in Washington several days, arranging details for the celebration. Mr. DeGraw received a special invitation to attend the congress in recognition of the great achievements which have been accomplished under direction of Postmaster-General Hitchcock by the bureau under his jurisdiction, through the agency of rural delivery and its patrons and employes in the matter of establishment of good roads throughout the country.
